Quality Excellent

These guys are INCREDIBLE. They are knowledgeable and fair. They do nothing but try to get you the best ring that you can afford. They do not try to upsell you which is very note worth as you do not find that in many jeweler. They honestly want to help you the best they can. I wen in buying a ring not knowing much but left joke knowledgable than your average consumer with the best ring my budget could afford. do not be afraid to do this entirely via email either. tho is how I did mine and every step of the way they offered to answer any questions i had and provided plenty of pictures and descriptions so you know exactly what you are getting. Im sure I will be buying anniversary jewelry in years to come and fully intend to do it with them even though they are in Daytona and I am in Atlanta! do not hesitate to check them out they are superb.
